

Trinity School and College, Rochester

Full time permanent posts available for:

Speech and Language Therapist

Trinity is an independent day special school, college and gateway provision, specialising in teaching children and young people aged 6 to 25 who need support as a result of ASD, DLD, anxiety, speech, language and communication needs, dyspraxia or dyslexia.

We are looking for someone to start as soon as you can. This is a term time only position. Hours are 8.30am to 4.00pm (5pm on Tuesdays). We would ideally like someone with experience working in a school setting or with a paediatric population, but will consider recently qualified therapists if you have other relevant experience. Salary is negotiable according to experience.

Lots of exciting benefits to this job! -

- manageable caseload numbers
- member of a lovely, supportive, well established therapy team
- opportunities to work with students from a wide age range in KS2,3,4 and 5
- protected admin time
- dedicated therapy space
- well resourced therapy department with up to date assessments
- supervision from an experienced therapy team lead
- access to CPD both in-house and by accessing external courses
- lots of flexibility in the way you offer therapy - 1 to 1 sessions, small groups, in-class support

For an informal chat or further details please email Gemma Regan (Therapy Manager and Speech & Language Therapist) at gregan@trinityschoolrochester.co.uk.

Alternatively email lcook@trinityschoolrochester.co.uk (HR) to request an application form.